Outstanding Secondary Learning and Teaching

Practical, proven techniques to lead whole-school improvement in the Quality of Teaching to accelerate pupil progression

“Nothing matters more than teaching.”

Michael Gove, April 2013

The Quality of Teaching in our schools is under scrutiny from the DfE and Ofsted like never before.

In light of this, developing an effective whole-school approach to learning and teaching will be crucial to ensure your school is able to provide Outstanding learning experiences that lead to consistently high levels of pupil progress.

Are you confident that every member of staff at your school is delivering Outstanding Quality of Teaching?

Optimus Education's 9th Annual Outstanding Secondary Learning and Teaching conference will enable you to take away a range of practical, workable strategies to raise the standard of teaching throughout your school and deliver measurable and sustained pupil progress.

We are delighted to welcome Jason Ashley, Headteacher at Redbridge Community School who will share the 4 most effective changes they made to learning and teaching to move from Good to Outstanding.

Learn how you can establish a school-wide system that promotes independent learning by encouraging every pupil to take control of their learning and make rapid progress. Plus, Claire Gadsby, Learning and Teaching Consultant will provide practical, proven and time-efficient strategies to help you ensure your colleagues can evidence pupil progression during a lesson and over time.

Attend a varied selection of in-depth streamed sessions on:

- Differentiation: Ensure the needs of every pupil are being met with these practical methods to enable all staff to effectively plan for and deliver differentiation
- Evidencing: Take away proven methods that will allow your colleagues to accurately demonstrate pupil progress both during a lesson and over time
- Model Lesson: Practical strategies to meet current Ofsted criteria and ensure the delivery of consistently Outstanding lessons throughout your school
- Questioning: Ensure all teachers are equipped with effective questioning techniques to promote deeper pupil understanding in class

This is your opportunity to banish misconceptions and understand what progress Ofsted actually expect to see during inspection. Leave the day with a wealth of practical, innovative classroom strategies and ready to embed high-quality learning and teaching in your school that drives pupil progress.

Included in your registration is a FREE pre-event webinar.

After the event you will be given access to download speakers' presentations to transform learning and teaching in your organisation. Please take a moment to look through the programme of the opposite page and use the booking form on the back to secure your place.

We look forward to welcoming you in November.
